CONNECTING STRENGTH

A wide-angle photograph of a large, empty retail store interior. The ceiling is a white grid with recessed fluorescent lights. The floor is light-colored tiled. In the foreground, there is a metal clothing rack on a wooden pallet. In the background, there are more clothing racks, a wooden counter, and a wall with a stone-like texture. The overall atmosphere is clean and modern, suggesting a new fit-out project.

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

CONNECTING STRENGTH

Ireland's Retail, Office & Facility Fit-out Specialists

Providing ethical and sustainable engineering, construction and project management solutions that enhance the lives of people, the community and our environment.

Working hand in hand with our partners to provide the highest quality Fit-out services.

We project manage every aspect of retail fit-outs, refurbishments and all types of turnkey facility improvement projects. Our dedicated team works with our trusted and long-term contractor partners from design, demobilisation, shell and core fit-outs, construction, and finish to handover. We use lean and sustainable construction management processes and strive to make every project successful.

Commitment to Quality

Quality is in our DNA! Our team is committed to providing our clients with quality service, material and products, backed up by recognised certification in everything we do.

Added value service and process

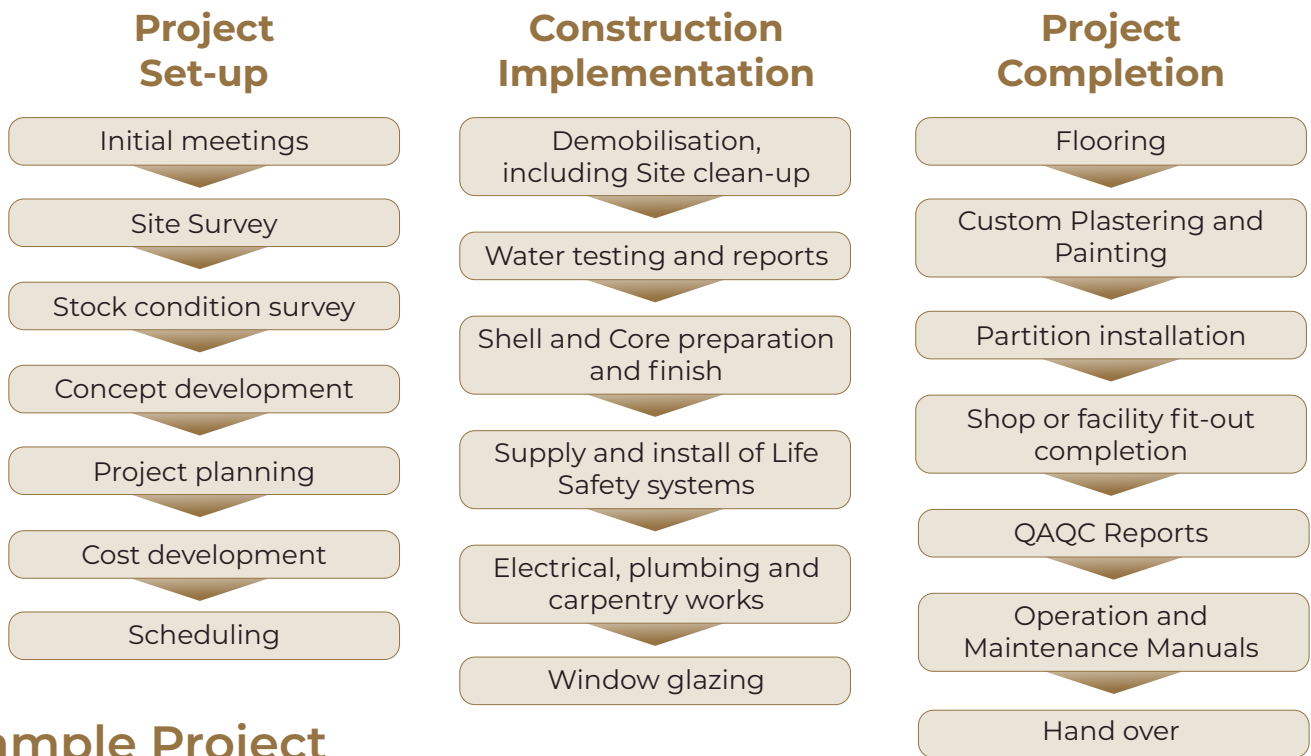

Every retail, office, warehouse, resource centre, and other related facility has challenges and complications. Our team have seen them all and has completed every task to the highest quality. As part of our "Total Project Management" solution, we act as our Clients' interface with subcontractors, suppliers and all third-party partners. We provide our clients with scheduled updates, notifying them of all milestones achieved and communicating as and when required and requested.

We look at every detail, large or small and provide bespoke solutions from the design and manufacturing of retail and office feature furniture to sustainable and energy-saving initiatives. We love to advise as and when we come across a solution that will improve the project for our Clients or save them time and money. Before every project begins, all trades and contractors are vetted for safety, insurance and qualifications by our in-house QEHS manager.
